Fr Bob will be away on vacation starting Oct 10th. During that time the parish office will operate on its normal hours. Fr Tim Shannon will cover the weekend masses but there will be no daily mass while Fr Bob is away. Should someone need anointed during that time please contact one of the local parishes. If there is a funeral during that time, please coordinate with the parish office for details and they will arrange for a priest or deacon to cover it. The Adult Discussion groups will take a break while Father is gone but RCIA will continue to meet on Tuesday evenings as scheduled.

OX ROAST

Ox Roast Raffle Tickets are still available. Instructions for sale and return are in the envelope. THESE ARE NOT MEAL TICKETS. Dinner is payed for separately at the door. Most of Ox Roast profit will come from this raffle so please make the effort to sell them.

The sign up sheets for the Ox Roast are in the Gathering area. This project takes lots of helping hands so please check the board and help us out.

We will also be looking for folk to make desserts for this event; plan what you might make.

We'll be back soon

Adult Discussions will take a break while Fr Bob is away. Classes will resume on Oct 23rd with a look at how Catholic deal with the scriptures, how we interpret them and use them.—which is very different from more fundamentalist Protestants. Sr. Joan—who conducts our Sunday morning Scripture study—will be our guest presenter.

The folk at Mary's House—a shelter for pregnant women—in Beverly are in the final stages of making renovations. Anyone who is interested and able to put in any amount of time helping out is most welcome. Even an hour or two is appreciated, as many hands make light work! If you have any experience painting (walls, etc.), they could use your help. Also, people who are willing to clean or do some yard work - all help is appreciated. If interested you can call Barb Roe (740-429-4385), Lisa Tracey (740-509-0233) or Annette Schaad (740-517-1292).
